Cardinals Gather To Name Successor To Pope John

By GERALD MILLER
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Workmen at Vatican City grappled today with a major housing problem, finding accommodations for the largest conclave of cardinals in history.

More than half of the 82 members of the Sacred College were already in Rome and most of the others were expected by Monday. They will begin electing a successor to Pope John XXIII June 19.

Prelates here from the United States were James Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles, Joseph Elmer Cardinal Ritter of St. Louis, and Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer of Chicago. Still due were Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York and Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston.

CONTINUE MOURNING

While the princes of the Roman Catholic Church prepared to choose a new ruler, the world's half billion Roman Catholics continued mourning for the departed Pope.

Lines of praying Catholics moved past the tomb of Pope John in the dimly lit grotto of St. Peter's Basilica on the second of the nine days of formal mourning.

Across from St. Peter's Sam-

WHITEWASH WINDOWS

Two ballots will be cast each morning and afternoon until someone gets the required two-thirds majority.

Windows of the Sistine Chapel will be whitewashed to preserve utmost secrecy.

The size of the College of Cardinals, increased to an all-time high by Pope John, has created unprecedented problems.

When Pope John XXIII was elected in 1958, there were only 52 cardinals. Each was accompanied by two or three aides.

Each cardinal is provided separate sleeping quarters along with accommodations for his aides. Cooking and dining facilities also must be set up since the prelates cannot leave the conclave area.

The press for space is such that the cardinals reportedly will be restricted to only one aide each this time.

YORK BUILDER LOW BIDDER ON LIBRARY WORK

Directors of the Adams County Public Library Friday evening awarded the contract for remodeling and enlargement of the main library building to Harold H. Hogg, York contractor, who submitted the lowest of five bids last month.

Hogg's offer on the base contract was $87,020. With additional construction covered in bid alternates, the total cost could rise to $99,000 but the library board will make decisions later about the extent of the project.

It was announced at the meeting Friday evening at the main library on E. High St. that the library has won approval of a renewal of its library service demonstration project for a second year. The renewal was accompanied by a check for $12,500 in federal funds usable only for book service to the people of the county.

BOOK LOANS UP

On the matter of book service, Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, reported that loans from the main library last month were up 17 per cent over May of last year and Joseph Dobransky, coordinator of the rural library service demonstration project, said loans from the second bookmobile went over 4,000 last month for a new record. More than 10,000 loans have now been made in communities all over the county through the second bookmobile in the last three months.

Dr. Harry F. Baughman, capital funds drive chairman, told the board cash and pledges gathered in the drive now total $37,000 and he reviewed the status of the yet incomplete canvass of the county which has $100,000 as its goal. He said the response of the public in general, industries and business places hold the key to a successful completion of the drive but all divisions of the campaign have yet to make final reports.

The board announced Friday evening the opening of the fund campaign for memorial gifts honoring Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, one of the founders of the library, a member of the first board of directors and later library president. A number of gifts already have been received toward an Elsie Singmaster memorial, Dr. Baughman said.

BENEFIT PLAY

Mrs. Wilson reported memorial gifts of books for Mrs. Cecil Guise, Mrs. Ruth Finkboner and Gregory Williams.

The board authorized a $3,000 payment to J. Alfred Hamme and Associates from the library development fund. The Hamme firm is handling the architectural work for the library building project.

Mrs. Madeleine Killalea, president of the Friends of the Library, told the board her organization is sponsoring a play for the benefit of the library at the Totem Pole Playhouse June 18. The production is "Come Blow Your Horn." She distributed tickets to board members to sell.

President H. Thomas Pyle presided at the meeting with eight members of the board in attendance.

Mrs. Drucilla M. Yana, 29, of 333 N. East St., Carlisle, was killed Thursday when she was thrown 110 feet from a motorcycle which struck and uprooted a guard post on Rt. 233 a mile north of Landisburg.

She was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Lee C. Morrissey, Perry County coroner. She was riding on the motorcycle tandem seat.

The driver, Frank E. Myers, 16 S. High St., Newville, was tossed 30 feet from the wreckage. He was admitted to Carlisle Hospital with a compound fracture of the right leg and head injuries.

Scientists Study Fatigue In Gears

CHICAGO (AP)—The gears in your automobile are a big problem to scientists who are undertaking a three-year study to find out why they suffer surface fatigue and pitting.

Armour Research Foundation of the Illinois Institute of Technology is beginning to work on the project.

Dr. Donald J. McPherson, director of the research group's metals division, said some 20 companies representing the steel, bearing, automotive, heavy machinery and gear-producing industries are expected to cosponsor the study.

Surface pitting leads to results ranging from noisy gearboxes to complete failure of a gear.

"Very little is understood about the problem," McPherson said.

An extravagance is anything a man buys that's of no earthly value to his wife.

HAIL, STORMS HIT EAST; WEST IS WARM, DRY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Partly cloudy skies and warm temperatures prevailed over most sections of the country today, but isolated portions received sizable thunderstorms.

The Western mountains were hit by widely scattered thundershowers, as were the northern Great Plains and the Southeastern coast from Louisiana to Virginia. Showers and thunderstorms also fell in the upper Mississippi and Ohio Valley regions.

The rest of the country was dry and warm.

The 50s and 60s prevailed in the Western states while warm and humid Gulf air east of the Rockies pushed 70 degree readings as far north as North Dakota and Minnesota. The 50s were confined to the cool air from the northern Great Lakes area eastward to New England. The temperature ranged from a 45 in Ely, Nev., and Malad City, Idaho, to 84 in Omaha.

Somewhat cooler weather was experienced along the East Coast from New York to South Carolina. A warming trend developed in portions of Nevada, Utah and Idaho.

Elsewhere the stable system of unseasonable warm temperatures continued except for the Canadian border states, the Middle Atlantic states, and the area west of the Rocky Mountains.

Today's weather was somewhat of a lull after violent thunderstorms accompanied by high winds and hail had lashed scattered areas from the Dakotas to Maryland Friday causing at least one death.

A boy, 10, was killed by lightning in a Cincinnati park. The storm occurred during an evening rush hour as winds roared through the area at 70 miles per hour.

MISS WANTZ

The front of the skirt had an apron effect of matching lace. A self-made bow accented the waistline and a skirt ended in a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of imported silk illusion fell from a headpiece of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, topped with gardenias, from which flowed a shower of white satin streamers and white rosebuds.

5 ATTENDANTS

A purple cummerbund with bow in the back accented the gown. She had a matching headpiece and carried a colonial bouquet of rosebuds centered with shaded carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Susan Reaver, Littlestown; Miss Kathi Miller, Littlestown R. D.; Mrs. Joyce Strevig Feeser, York Springs, and Miss Joy Fair, Gettysburg. They wore gowns and carried bouquets identical to that of the maid of honor.

The bridegroom chose for his best man Brian March, York. Serving as ushers were Charles Long, John Hoffman and Dennis Ensminger, York, and Ronald Feeser, York Springs. Stuart Peterson Jr., Taneytown, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall with approximately 200 wedding guests in attendance.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the south. For traveling the bride selected a pink cotton dress with a white coat and other white accessories. She wore a white gardenia corsage. Upon their return they will reside in Rome, N. Y.

Mrs. Crouse is a 1961 graduate of Littlestown High School and was graduated in 1963 from Maryland Medical Secretarial School, Hagerstown. She was employed by Carroll County General Hospital, Westminster.

Benedict Sanders, brother of the bride, and John Billman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with ruffled tiers of the hand-clipped Chantilly lace and the fitted bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her bouffant veil of imported pure silk illusion fell from a cluster of lilies of the valley. She carried a prayerbook with red sweetheart roses on a white orchid.

ATTENDED BY SISTER

The matron of honor, Mrs. Angela Kondash, 1727 N. Second St., Harrisburg, sister of the bride, wore a pink chiffon street-length dress with net and silk underskirts, and scooped neckline. Her chin-length veil fell from a beehive headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

William Coston, R. 6, uncle of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Donald Coldsmith and James Roy, Gettysburg.

The bride's mother wore a light blue chiffon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

RECEPTION FOR 100

For traveling the bride chose a white and gray print jersey two-piece suit with black patent leather accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 244 Chambersburg St.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Delone Catholic High School and is employed in the order writing department of Knouse Foods, Peach Glen. The groom graduated in the same class at the same school and is employed by Bix-Sway Men and Boy's Shop here.

Hurt When Auto Hits Parked Car

A 73-year-old McSherrystown motorist received lacerations of the lip and right hand when the automobile he was driving struck a park car in Hanover Thursday at 1:30 p.m. Hanover police reported.

The man, Edward J. Sneeringer, 89 Main St., McSherrystown, refused medical treatment for his injuries, police said.

His car struck the left rear of an automobile owned by Albert H. and Evelyn C. Smith, Hanover. Damage to the Sneeringer sedan was estimated at $175 and at $600 to the parked auto, police said.

JFK Visits

DUCKS PICKETS

The Navy, at China Lake, Calif., just prior to Kennedy's flight here, blew up a modest section of the Mojave Desert in an impressive display of new weapons for the chief executive.

Then Kennedy helicoptered to the roof of his Los Angeles area hotel, incidentally avoiding street-bound pickets urging stronger presidential leadership in the civil rights field.

The President planned to leave here during the evening for Honolulu to address a Sunday meeting of the nation's mayors. The topic: civil rights.

TEN YEARS AGO

Honor Williams At Shepherd College: William "Bill" Williams, who has completed his Freshman year at Shepherd College, Shepherdstown, W. Va., has returned to Gettysburg where he will spend the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Williams, 33 Hanover St. Mr. Williams has been named "outstanding freshman of the year in the field of physical education," it was announced by the school. He is vice president of the Varsity Club, a member of Zeta Sigma Fraternity and a member of the Circle K Club. He was graduated from the Gettysburg High School in June, 1952.

Widow Of Dr. Henry Gettys Enjoys Visit To Gettysburg: Mrs. Helen Gettys, widow of Dr. Henry Gettys, St. Louis, Mo., surgeon and fifth generation descendant of James Gettys, founder of Gettysburg, who was a weekend visitor here, found the town her husband's ancestor founded much as she had anticipated — a small town but with a host of interesting landmarks and historically important places.

Mrs. Gettys said it was her first visit here, and that the trip was made despite the fact that previous plans could not be fulfilled. She had planned to make the trip here with Mrs. Senator L. Gettys, of Dayton, Ohio, the widow of her husband's brother, but found that Mrs. Gettys' health would not allow her to make the trip.

"So I came to Gettysburg anyway," she said. Mrs. Gettys flew from St. Louis to Dayton, and from Dayton to Baltimore, taking a bus from Baltimore to Gettysburg. "It's not an easy town to get in or out of unless you have your own automobile, and I didn't want to drive here from St. Louis," she said.

A Gettys by marriage only, Mrs. Gettys said she knows of only two direct descendants now living of the founder of Gettysburg, a Perry Gettys, living in California, and Mrs. Senator Gettys' daughter, in Dayton.

W. T. Grant Co. Buys National Garage Bldg.: Sale of the National Garage building, 12-14 Chambersburg St., by its owner, David C. Forney, to the W. T. Grant Co., a chain store firm operating stores in many cities in the eastern United States, is shown in a deed filed Monday afternoon in the office of the register and recorder.

The deed shows the property was sold for $47,500, but Mr. Forney said a sales contract with the Grant Co. allows him to remove all of the equipment contained in the automotive sales rooms and garage. Ownership passed to the Grant Co. Monday, Mr. Forney said, but the latter will not take possession until sometime in December.

Five Cent Parking Fee Is Adopted By Town Council; Penny Slots To Be Closed: Borough Council, at its June meeting Monday night at the fire engine house, voted to make all parking meters in the borough the five-cent variety, with no further "penny time" in the meters. The penny slots on the 200-old old meters on Chambersburg, York, Carlisle, Baltimore and Middle Streets will be closed. It was explained that nearly all the mechanical trouble was caused by the penny slots.

Today's Talk

WEALTH ANYWHERE
It seems to me to be a sign of ignorance for a person to feel wedded, or anchored, to one place. As though the spring of all incentive did not rest within one's own self!

Go where a man will, he cannot leave himself behind. His good works, his evil, or his influence — yes. But a human being carries his world with him. With a man, therefore, goes all the wealth that he may desire — for love, beauty, imagination, understanding, appreciation are all wells of wealth that he carries with him wherever he goes.

A man, owning vast tracts of land or multiple towering skyscrapers in a big city, cannot put them in his suitcase as he journeys to a far destination. He can only strut his glory. But the kind heart, the generous and tolerant mind, and the wholesome look in the face are living signs of wealth that mark the man who owns them, wherever he may stand, or sit — or walk. In the desert-night the very stars salute him!

The rich in spirit are wealthy anywhere.
A man gains a fortune when he gains an understanding of himself — and sees good in the world, good in people, and a lesson of worth in misfortune. How very little we taste of our good gifts — free gifts from heaven and earth — and how we cheat time as we pass on. Time that expected so much from our gifted natures.

The rich in gold and material inheritance, the eager for glory and fame — these pass on and are soon forgotten, but the widow who gave her mile became immortal!

Why did the earth for rich treasure when there is more wealth in one friend's heart than all the gathered gold, gained from the sweat of men's brows? Just to have one friend — tried and true — is to be wealthy anywhere!

Just Folks
UNDERSTANDING
Last night I heard a lady sing
A classic bit and older,
Her voice, it did as clearly ring
As though her throat were golden.

She thrilled as only song birds can
And set my heart a-flutter.
I unto my neighbor man,
"No word I hear her utter."

"Tra, la, la, la is all I get,
If those are words, I doubt it.
That song is very lovely, yet
I'd like the truth about it."

He whispered low, "The lady pale
A tender thought discloses,
The song is of a nightingale
Whose passion for a rose is.

"The bird pours out his love in song,
But fails her heart to carry,
For she has loved a sunbeam long
And plans with him to marry."

"The sorrow-stricken nightingale
Up to the sky goes winging,
And dies — so runs the little tale —
"In one great burst of singing."

Then seeing what from me was hid
I strangely learned to love it,
And knowing what the lady did
I caught the beauty of it.

Thought I: Perhaps in after years
We'll find our doubts were treason,
And catch the beauty of our tears
When we have learned the reason.

Though sorrow fills us with despair
And life is ne'er without it,
We may see splendor everywhere
When we know more about it.

NEW YORK (AP)—On Monday nights, a dark-haired, dark-eyed divorcee named Irene Kampen and her blonde 17-year-old daughter, Christine, turn their television set on to CBS and for half an hour "have very odd feelings."

"It's our lives we're seeing," explained Mrs. Kampen. "They've changed the specific incidents, but the characters are recognizable and so are the situations."

Mrs. Kampen, a novelist and short story writer, is the author of a funny nonfiction book, "Life Without George," published two years ago. Now it is the basis of "The Lucy Show."

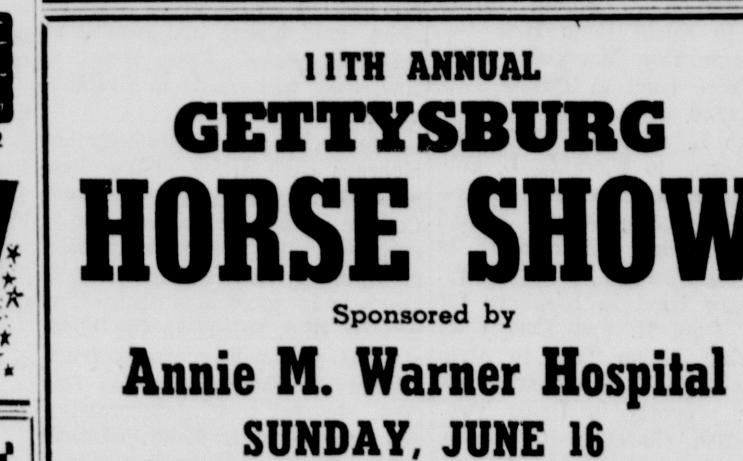

CHANGES MADE
Desi Arnaz had been looking for a suitable vehicle for Lucille Ball for three years before he ran across the book in which Mrs. Kampen described her experiences as a divorcee.

For television, of course, many changes had to be made. Brunette Irene Kampen, divorcee, became red-haired Lucy Carmichael, widow. Lucy was given another child, a son, Jerry. Mrs. Kampen's fellow divorcee who—with son Eric—shared the Kampen home and adventures is named Evelyn. She became Vivian Bagley — played by Vivian Vance — whose son is named Sherman.

Mrs. Kampen is a former newspaper reporter who wrote the book — her first — to indicate that all divorcees are not sleek sophisticated dames interested in CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Alex S. Herschfield, 82, prominent neurophysician who was medical director of Pinel Hospital for Mental Diseases for 33 years, died Thursday. He received a presidential citation for heading a Selective Service neurological appeals board.

NORTHFIELD, Vt. (AP)—Col. Lewis Ebenezer Perry, 63, vice president and dean of Norwich University, died Friday of a heart attack. Perry, a native of Alma, N.Y., served with the 7th Army in Europe during World War II.

BALTIMORE (AP)—William Henry Haussner, 68, Baltimore restaurateur and art collector, died Friday in his home after a long illness. Among the original paintings in the restaurant are works of Van Dyck, Bouguereau, Rembrandt and Cazin.

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Henry Butzel, 92, justice of the Michigan Supreme Court from 1929-1955 and twice president of the Detroit Bar Association, died Friday in his home. He served four terms as chief justice.

More than 7,000 medical research projects in all fields of medicine are being conducted by the Veterans Administration.

LABOR PARTY
MOVES TO OUST
MACMILLAN

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Labor party leaders charted plans today to use the scandal involving John Profumo and a pretty party girl as a lever to try to topple Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative government.

The opposition indicated it will hit on the security aspects of Profumo's illicit affair with pretty Christine Keeler, 22, while he was war minister.

While Profumo was carrying on the affair that resulted in his resignation as war minister, Christine was also romancing Cmdr. Eugene Ivanov, former Soviet naval attaché. Since his recall to Moscow, Ivanov has come to be regarded here as a Soviet intelligence agent.

2 ADVANTAGES
Labor party Leader Harold Wilson informed the government Friday that his party wants to discuss "security aspects of recent events" when Parliament returns from a recess June 17.

Debate will take place on a procedural motion for adjournment of the House of Commons rather than on a substantive move. When it is proposed that the House adjourn until its next sitting, any subject may be raised for debate. Laborite strategists decided this has two advantages for them.

TRACK SPAT CONTINUES TO
STIR TROUBLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The college-backed United States Track and Field Federation a loser in its latest tangle with the Amateur Athletic Union, fired back Friday with two conditions under which its athletes will compete in a meet later this month to pick a squad to oppose Russia.

And, once again, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the man in the middle, was asking for a ruling.

What appeared to be at least a temporary settlement in the tussle over track and field's administration Thursday noon developed Thursday night into considerably less when federation officials, meeting in Houston, announced they had wired two questions to Gen. MacArthur President Kennedy's hand-picked arbitrator in the raging dispute, Gen. MacArthur was asked:

1. Are we privileged to approve, authorize or sanction participation of our athletes in competition?

2. Does the AAU meet in St. Louis, June 21-22 compel USTFF athletes to register with and join the AAU against their will as a requisite to participation?

Federation President William Russell also indicated that unless college athletes do not have to register with the AAU and unless the AAU formally requests their participation in the St. Louis meet, no truce is in effect, even temporarily.

The AAU, which Thursday was upheld by Gen. MacArthur in its stand that it holds sole sanctioning power for open competition, promptly called the federation statement "astounding." Executive Director Don Hull said, in effect, the federation conditions would not be met.

"We will conduct our championship meet in St. Louis in accordance with the rules of our organization," Hull said. "They include that any athlete competing in our meet must either be registered or certified."

Tony Frullo, Bill Shepherd and Ron Overcash hit consecutive homers as the Binghamton Triplets staged a five-run first-inning rampage and went on to defeat the Elmira Pioneers, 6-3 Friday night.

Losers Steve Cosgrove, who tossed the three home run balls, lasted just to the second inning. The winner was John O'Donahue.

In other action around the Class AA League Charleston and York split a doubleheader at York.

York won the first, 4-0, as winner Dick Hughes held Charleston to just two hits. Charleston's 8-4 victory was a rain-shortened one. The game was called after six innings.

The last place team in the league, Reading, turned the tables on the leader, Springfield, defeating the Giants 2-0. Failure to get timely hitting cost the Giants. Springfield left two men on base in the third, fourth and sixth inning, when batters couldn't deliver.

TITLE BATTLE

THIS EVENING

NEW YORK (AP)—Emile Griffith, an aggressive, hard-hitting body puncher, was a slim favorite today to beat champion Luis Rodriguez in tonight's 15-round weight bout and regain the world welterweight crown for a record

Griffith, who has won and lost the title twice, was a 6-5 favorite on the early line to win the rubber match in the third fight with the happy-go-lucky champion, a Cuban exile now living in Miami.

Both the 24-year-old Griffith, a New Yorker originally from the Virgin Islands, and the dancing Rodriguez, predicted a knockout

On the record, it seemed unlikely. Neither man has ever been stopped.

Each has beaten the other once, Griffith won a split decision before either was champion and each was seeking a shot at the late Benny (Kid) Paret, then the champion. Paret died of injuries suffered in a fight with Griffith.

Rodriguez, 25, won the title from Griffith with an unpopular

15-round decision in Los Angeles March 21. A majority of the boxing writers covering the fight scored for Griffith.

The fight, Rodriguez' first defense, was scheduled to be nationally televised from Madison Square Garden starting at 9 p.m. EST.

Griffith took a record of 35-4 into the bout, including 13 knockouts. Rodriguez is 50-2, including 21 knockouts.

SPARE PUTTER

HELPS BOROS

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP)—

"I wish I could find the guy who stole my putter," says Julius Boros.

The big, swarthy North Carolinian, out in front by two strokes in the $2,000 Flint Open golf tournament thanks to an old, spare putter, indicated gratitude to the culprit.

Someone swiped Boros' putter at the last Masters tournament.

He has been hot with the spare one ever since.

Boros fired a 6-under-par 66 Friday for the lead, dropping birdie putts of 35 and 25 feet among his 10 one-putt greens.

VET TAKES LEAD

The 43-year-old veteran seized the lead in the big field at Warwick Hills from Jerry Pittman, a Tulsa 17 years his junior. Pittman earlier had shot a 4-under-par 68 on the 7,280-yard course.

The meet, rained out Thursday when Tony Lema lost a 5-under-par 67 with all scores canceled, moved into its second round today with the pressure on Boros.

Besides Pittman, others on Boros' heels were Al Mengert, left-hander Bob Charles and former U.S. Open champion Gene Littler, all tied with 3-under-par 69s.

Lema settled for a 71, tying with 14 others. There was another jam-up at 70, including Dow Finsterwald, Bo Wining and five others.

BRITISH DOWN

YANK GOLFERS

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, (AP)—

Two Englishmen, the most improbable of finalists, met today in a 36-hole match for the British Amateur Golf Championship, leaving in their wake a toll of 39 Americans including eight Walker

Cup players.

The quarter-finals and semifinals Friday over the 6,936-yard par 72 Old Course sprayed favorites out like a rampant garden hose that slipped its moorings and the survivors were:

John Blackwell, 48, and Michael Lunt, 28. Lunt was the only Walker

Cup player to last through the week-long match play.

In the Walker Cup play at Turn-berry where the Americans won 12-8, Lunt managed only one-half point by playing one opponent to a tie. This week he knocked four Americans out, including defending champion Dick Davies of Pasadena, Calif. and Dr. Ed Up-derraff, Tucson, Ariz.

This was the first time since

1926 that the British staved off an American victory in a year that the U.S. Walker Cup squad was on the scene.

WANT SENATE POLICEMEN TO DRESS BETTER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The police who patrol the halls of Congress and the men who run its elevators are catching a bit of criticism about their appearance.

Some senators feel they're simply not dressy enough, considering the splendor of their place of

The Capitol policemen look pretty much like any other men in blue, with neither plumes nor breastplates. And some say you can't tell the elevator operators from the tourists unless you push the "up" buzzer.

Sen. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., noted at a hearing Friday he has received complaints from several senators that the police have the worst dress uniforms of any capital in the world.

DEFENDS COPS

But William C. Cheatham, an aide to the Senate sergeant at arms, leaped to the defense of the police. He described them as "a fine looking group of men" who must keep their shoes shined, uniforms pressed, hair cut, and stand inspection.

Monroney suggested that the elevator operators and doormen be garbed so "they don't look like the tourists."

But Cheatham pointed out that distinction has its price: About $22,000 to dress the elevator and doormen so the public and the senators can recognize them.

Recognizing them was not a problem for first-term Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va. The problem was their not recognizing him, he said, adding: "They should do a better job of distinguishing senators from tourists and clerks."

FOREIGN AID: Chairman

Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, figures the administration should consider itself lucky if $4.1 billion is authorized for foreign aid next year. President Kennedy asked for $4.5 billion.

Morgan said his committee should begin the final stages of writing the authorization bill next week after two months of hearings.

He said the report of Gen. Lucian D. Clay's Advisory Committee on Foreign Aid has made the House Committee's job more difficult. Clay recommended that the program be tightened up and cut at least to $4.3 billion.

State's 35,000 Dairymen Observe June Dairy Month

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

Pennsylvania's 35,000 dairymen are celebrating their 27th annual June is Dairy Month Milk Program. Their success story is one that is reflected directly to the consumer in the market place, "Milk, The Most Nearly Perfect Food" and also "The Most Economical Food Buy of the Day."

Today, a modern miracle in milk production is being achieved. Fewer dairymen milking fewer cows are producing more milk per cow, more milk per acre, more milk per farm, and more total milk than ever before. This adds up to modern, technological production efficiency on our dairy farms. This is why milk is still our most economical food buy. In 1930 the average worker had to work 15 minutes to earn enough money to buy a quart of milk. Today he earns enough money to buy a quart of milk every 6 minutes.

A GOOD BUY

Milk in Pennsylvania is still a good food buy, it's good for you and it tastes good, too. So . . . during June let's all drink a toast to the dairymen of Adams County, our partners in economic progress, our partners in promoting good health for all ages and at a price we can all afford to pay.

Summer feed for $10 to $15 a ton may seem impossible after last winter's $40-$50 per ton prices.

but you may be able to produce some annual forages at low cost a pasture or silage this summer. This will save more hay for next winter's feeding.

For example: Sudan grass may produce up to 4 tons of hay equivalent per acre even in a dry year. With seed, fertilizer, tractor fuel and other out-of-pocket costs of about $10-$30 per acre, it still makes fairly cheap summer feed. Annual crops, such as sudan, forage sorghum, or sudan-sorghum hybrids can be used for pasture, green chop or silage. Sudan grass alone is recommended for pasture. With soybeans it can be used for silage or even hay. Forage sorghums or sudan-sorghum hybrids can be used for silage or green chop.

GET TWO CROPS

These annual crops are not usually seeded until after June 1 so they can be put on land which has already been pastured or even a first-cutting of hay removed. This has the effect of getting two crops the same year. A crop of sudan or sudan sorghum is particularly applicable where the stand of hay is poor or the cropland pasture is burned out by the weather and heavy pasturing.

You may want to consider some acreage of these annual crops instead of depending entirely on corn for winter silage. In a normal year, corn will out-produce the sudans and sorghums but they are most resistant to droughty conditions than corn.

Being told that an accident can happen to you seems to have little effect on the reduction of accidents when you consider the shocking number of farm people killed and injured each year.

The individual does not seem

BLOAT CASES NEED ACTION

Veterinary research is getting nearer the answer to the problem of bloat in cows but there is still no simple way to prevent this troublesome, noninfectious cattle disease, the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association today reported.

Veterinarians are giving special attention to bloat this month because spring is the major danger season for the affliction.

Experiments with penicillin, vegetable oils and some of the new detergents are helping to solve the problem that costs American farmers nearly fifty million dollars a year, but there is still no foolproof way to prevent it.

In bloat, there is an excessive accumulation of gas in the stomach which the cow cannot eliminate by belching. Bacteria in the rumen produce the gas.

The big bloat producers appear to be legumes such as ladino clover, alfalfa and white clover but occasionally a cow will bloat on a green pasture like rye grass.

Symptoms include a swelling of the paunch on the left flank of the animal, a stop in grazing, open mouth, distressed appearance, excessive salivation, a wide-open stance, a kicking at the abdomen and rapid breathing.

Two of the old preventive remedies are feeding cows a coarse material before pasturing "fern on bloat producers and maintaining pasture mixtures which contain less than 50 per cent legumes.

Although there is considerable disagreement concerning treatment, everyone agrees that the important element in saving the animal is time. Farmers are urged to call their local veterinarians as soon as they spot a bloat case.

to have a high regard for his own safety, but members of his family do. The farm family's very existence depends upon the well-being and safety of each member.

It is the parent's responsibility to see that their children grow up with healthy attitudes toward safety as well as live in safe physical surroundings.

Father must practice safety at all times in order to prevent an accident to himself. The family needs his earning power and in most cases cannot stand economic costs usually accompany-

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

"CRITICAL SITUATION": One out of every four in the ranks of the unemployed last month were teen-agers. The number likely will grow this month as schools begin summer vacations.

An unexpectedly large number of youngsters pouring into the job market sent May's seasonally-adjusted unemployment rate up to 5.9 per cent from 5.7 per cent in April, the Labor Department reported Thursday.

All told, teen-age unemployment climbed to 13 per cent—the highest level recorded since the bureau began keeping its adjusted records in 1949—and now 25 per cent of all the jobless are youngsters, the department said.

"These figures reflect a critical situation; a situation which could develop into one of the most explosive problems in the nation's history," said Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

CARIBBEAN UPGRADED: The Defense Department has upgraded its Caribbean Command—stressing its importance in dealing with possible Cuban threats to Latin America.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, announced Thursday that the command has been given the new name of "United States Southern Command" under a full general, Andrew P. O'Meara, whose promotion from lieutenant general was just confirmed by the Senate.

JOB DISCRIMINATION: A 50-man force has started making on-site inspections as part of a crack-down on job discrimination in federally financed construction projects throughout the nation.

CENSORSHIP: Edward A. McDermott, head of the Office of Emergency Planning, says a code of voluntary censorship plans for use in a national emergency will be made public soon.

The plans were drawn up with ing a serious injury. Most mothers realize a happy family has fewer accidents, so the most important contribution of the homemaker is to be able to assess her family situation, anticipate accident possibilities in household and act accordingly. Management is a constant effort, and safety around the clock depends on good management. "Farm safety is a family affair."

CO-OPS FIGHT OVER HANDLING EXCESS MILK

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Three major dairy cooperatives in the northeast, competing for members are engaged in a bitter quarrel over the affect that milk plants of two of the organizations have on overproduction.

Heated, verbal exchanges were heard Thursday by 400 delegates at the final session of Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative's two-day annual meeting.

John C. York, executive secretary for Eastern, touched off the exchange when he charged that milk plants operated by the Mutual Federation of Independent Cooperatives and Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency were encouraging the overproduction of milk.

URGE OVERPRODUCTION

York's charge was assailed as "irresponsible" by Mutual and by Metropolitan spokesmen.

The three dairy-farmer groups are among the largest dairy organizations in the New York-New Jersey milkshed.

York charged that the two cooperatives were encouraging overproduction to keep their manufacturing plants operating at full capacity.

Metropolitan operates a plant at Fort Plain, and Mutual has one at Oneida. Each can process one million pounds of milk daily.

Mutual and Metropolitan spokesmen said the plants were designed to maintain markets for dairy farmers who otherwise would have to dump their over-supply of milk.

The spokesman for Mutual said the Oneida plant was operating at the maximum level because there was more surplus milk than the plant could handle.

The only other alternative to the plants, the two spokesmen said, would be for Congress to adopt a program for milk-production control.

APPEALS FOR UNITY

Amidst the flurry of accusations Herbert Kling, the state Agriculture Department's director of the milk control, appealed to dairymen to work together.

James Speer of Blairs Mills, Pa. Eastern's president, met the appeal coolly.

Speer said his main objection to the effectiveness of working together was the "ambition of many who want to control Eastern . . . who want to control our objectives and our way of representing producers."

During the meeting, Eastern passed a resolution to invite the dairymen to break away from Metropolitan and Mutual and join Eastern.

Mutual and Metropolitan announced recently they were considering the possibility of a merger.

the advice of a panel of news executives, McDermott told a closed session of the House Foreign Operations and Government Information subcommittee Thursday.

NUCLEAR SHOTS: The United States has detonated two more nuclear test explosions at its Nevada test site—the 65th and 66th announced in a series of underground shots that began in 1961.

CAPITAL PROBLEM: Racial discrimination in employment is a major factor in the high rate of crime, unemployment and other social ills in Washington, a Civil Rights Commission advisory group has concluded.

NOT KEEN ON LONDON VISIT

LONDON (AP) — No British official will admit it, but diplomats here believe President Kennedy is much less keen than Prime Minister Harold Macmillan about their meeting in Britain June 29. The 24-hour encounter at Macmillan's country home in Sussex, near London, was simultaneously announced Friday by Macmillan's office and the White House. Kennedy will sandwich in the stop between visits to Ireland and Italy.

Kennedy was reported not anxious to be drawn into British election campaigning but also anxious not to offend Macmillan, an old friend and a trusted ally.

Macmillan is battling to save the life of his Conservative government which faces an election in 16 months. His political fortunes have slumped after a series of setbacks, capped this week by a sex scandal involving one of his ministers.

There is no doubt he would be helped if he could bask in the reflected glory of a Presidential visit. This is what happened when former President Dwight D. Eisenhower visited London and appeared with Macmillan on television shortly before the 1959 general election.

Dean Jagger

Jagger, on the other hand, was to learn that the academic life was not for him. After a year of teaching he enrolled at Wabash College "and doubted credits to waste no time and planted onions and scrubbed floors to pay my way." He also found time for football. But by the middle of his second year he found that the halls of ivy — instead of giving him increasing satisfaction — were making him restless.

STILL GRATEFUL

Jagger is still grateful for a discerning professor's probing "over tea and cakes" which helped him discover what he wanted. "I discovered," he recalls, "that I had always been happiest when I was doing orations or poetry readings at churches and clubs."

Thus enlightened he wasted no time borrowing $90 from an uncle and accompanied by a classmate, running away to Chicago.

"I headed right for the stage entrance of a theater where H. B. Warner was starring and asked the first man I saw how to go about becoming an actor. I never knew who he was, but I think it may have been the show's publicity man."

"My boy," he told the young Dean, "it's difficult." What he said next, though, made the difference. "He suggested I look up the Lyceum Acting School." Dean took off. "I don't know if you are going to be an actor. I have 13 Chautauqua companies but if you can't act you won't get in one. We'll see" is what the school head told him.

FIND EXPRESSION

Thinking back to that turning point day in his life, Dean said, "We are all born to express ourselves some way. Everybody must find the right means for expressing his own need to create. This felt right to me. Then I read in the Chicago paper that we were considered missing persons. We called home right away and I summed up my explanation with 'So Pop, this is what I want to do.' Then came Pop's slow answer, 'You know best.' To the lasting credit of both of them, Dean did. (The classmate by the way went right back to college and is now a professor.)

Dean was in one of the touring companies in less than a year, got on Broadway in 1925 with a bit part in a George M. Cohan vehicle and has been working steadily, profitably and with acclaim on stage and in films ever since. Further he won't take a part he doesn't like. "I tend to be stubborn though, and sometimes I'm right sometimes I'm wrong." Then he laughed about a part he'd turned down because he didn't want to put on a false stomach and play a shuffling character in a Western . . . but "Darryl F. Zanuck dared me to do it and I began to study the character, a fellow named Yancy who had stolen a horse, and the humanity in him came through and I understood him and had a wonderful time portraying him."

HAS YOUNG DAUGHTER

With "Mr. Novak" it's going to be easier. There's already a lot of Principal Albert Vane in Dean Jagger. Furthermore, there's a teen-ager, his 13-year-old daughter Diane, around the house to give him the high school student's viewpoint.

Both his wife of 18 years, the former Gloria Ling, and Diane share his passion for blending creativity with orderliness. "My wife is a wonderful creative girl," is the tribute he pays her. "She writes and edits and thank goodness, is economical." Though they live in fashionable Brentwood, Gloria last year dispensed with servants except for cleaning help. "Can do it myself," she told him, "furthermore it's important that Diane learn how to cook and keep house, too." And, adds her proud father, you should see how that young lady cleans up a kitchen.

"It's not a pretentious house," he said comfortably, "but it's the way we enjoy it. All three of us paint and we have a middle room upstairs, with the wrong kind of wallpaper, where we hang our own pictures. We like them."

In addition to being a man of high standards, it's easy to see his school principal is also going to be a likeable human being.

Dean Jagger
TV School Starts For Him In June

Dean Jagger, who'll portray the high school principal in NBC's fall series "Mr. Novak," comes by his air of easy authority naturally. Before turning actor he was himself a school teacher. Program has received the advance commendation of the National Education Association.

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

"No more teachers, no more books. . . the freedom ball will be ringing out any minute now for the nation's pupils; and teachers too. But for many school administrators and department heads, summer is all too apt to mean work, work and more work, waiting ready for the fall term. Basting them, all to the gate, though, are the principal and staff of Jefferson High school, al setting for NBC's forthcoming series, "Mr. Novak" (already the recipient of warm praise from the National Education Association) which is now affording in Hollywood.

I latched onto an interview with Jefferson's "principal," Oscar" - winning actor, Dean Jagger, after the pilot film had been previewed to educators and before the "first semester" got rolling. (The title role — that of an able young teacher on his first job — is being portrayed by James Franciscus. And the first telecast is set for September 24, 7:30-8:30 p.m.)

LIKE EISENHOWER

What does Dean Jagger think about education today? Acting? Life in Hollywood?

Jagger walked me to a quiet corner at the NBC studios where we could talk at six feet, three inches. Jagger seems even taller because of his trim figure and erect bearing. When he's through playing principal, I thought, he'd be dazzling as a general in fact — though he doesn't resemble him facially, he does remind one of ex-President Eisenhower.

"Now, one question at a time," he said in substance. "There's no hurry, no hurry at all," he had the grace to add though other interviewers and television shows were clamoring for some of the little time left of his brief New York visit.

Jagger, I found has some pretty definite ideas about teaching and he's entitled it seems . . . because before becoming an actor he was a teacher. "At 17, right near home in Indiana," He got the job because he filled both requirements for handling an unruly class: First he'd earned his teaching certificate; and second he had an air of authority ("I was bigger than they were," he smiles? But then he can also appreciate a student's restlessness, too, because "I ran away from college, you see, in my sophomore year."

"LET'S RETRACE"

"Wait a minute! Let's retrace. You'd run away from college, then you taught school and all this before you were 17?"

Deliberateness is a charming art with Dean Jagger. His bright blue eyes carry the full force of his smile. "In those days," he said, "after finishing high school you could take a 10-week normal school course after which, if you passed your state teacher's exam, you could teach. I knew more than my students because I taught the elementary grades . . . and I mean grades, all eight of them."

"I got the unruliness under control fast," he noted. "Then as now I'm a believer in strict discipline. I suppose one of the most lasting satisfactions," he went on, "was a boy who started out unruly, started taking an interest in school that year and went on to become a noted scholar."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Mae Clarke, forever remembered as the gal on the receiving end of a grapefruit (in one of her early films, "Public Enemy," starring James Cagney) and now featured in the daytime, "General Hospital," commented on the difference between "Old Hollywood" and the new Hollywood of TV filming. "About the only difference, she said, is that we had more leisure for socializing on the set and at the commissary."

Barely time for lunch at all is how it sums up.

Somewhere however, is doing something about quick commissary lunches, Rick Jason, star of ABC's "Combat." Since lengthening the lunch hour is out of the question, Rick, who's quite a gourmet, was named to coordinate the catering for cast and crew of the World War II series. It's written in his contract, incidentally.

LAUGH LINES

Better just duck this one! Ernest Borgnine's lightning his humor for the summer months and is fond of asking and answering this "Know why a baby duck walks?" "No? Well, it's because it can't walk hardly!"

David Brinkley, who usually specializes in tricky high-level jokes has a summer weight offering too. Says he knows a fellow who wants to cross a cow and a mule so he can get milk with a kick in it.

SUMMER REPLACER

"The Keefe Braselle Show" is being readied by CBS for a June 25 debut as summer replacement (13 weeks) for the vacationing Garry Moore Show.

Featured weekly will be comedienne Ann "Schultz" Davis and one-time world middleweight champion (and perennial champion manager of the king's English) Rock Graziano. Also on the "regulars" list is Noelle Adams, dancer-singer-actress. The music will be under the baton of Sammy Kaye.

"CAMERA THREE"

"Camera Three" — still described as an "experimental series" is celebrating its 10th anniversary on the CBS Television Network (Sundays 11 a.m.).

Reason for the four-week long observance is that the series, in its decade of existence, has had four producers — will feature one program by each of the four: Robert Herridge, Lewis Freedman, John McGiffert and Clair Roskam (the present producer).

Pressures May Be Avoided In Proper Meal Planning

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

No need to wonder what to prepare for your centennial guests if you plan ahead. Planning is the everyday responsibility of every homemaker but is an essential one when under pressure. Most homemakers also are continually looking for ways to prepare food, tempt appetites and please the families and friends with nutritious food.

MRS. TUNISON

Instructions that came with the freezer. In case the book can't be found, use these general directions.

Disconnect the freezer from the electric outlet. Remove all food packages and wrap them in blankets, quilts, or newspapers to keep them frozen. Keep door or lid of freezer open and let frost melt from the box and coils or plates. To speed defrosting, place an electric fan in the open freezer. As the frost melts, remove it from the freezer walls with a rubber spatula. Use old towels or wipe with a cloth rinsed in clear water.

To clean the inside, wash with a solution of two tablespoons of baking soda to a quart of water. Wipe with a cloth rinsed in clear water.

Clean the gasket with a soap and water solution, then rinse. Clean the outside of the freezer with a soap and water solution or a special wax polish. Use a soft cloth to polish metal trim. Dry freezer inside and out.

Connect the freezer and let it run 30 minutes before returning food packages. Place oldest packages on top.

EVERYBODY NEEDS MILK

Milk is for everybody. It's important in the diet of persons of all ages from the infant to the golden age group. And, here's why milk is important—it's a leading food source of calcium and contains many other nutrients. In fact, you'll find it hard to plan a diet with enough calcium without including the recommended amounts of milk. Calcium builds and repairs bones and teeth . . . it helps with normal blood clotting and is needed for healthy nerves and muscle action.

The amount of milk a person needs daily depends on his age. Children need three to four cups of milk each day. Teen-agers need four or more cups of milk daily, and adults need two or more cups each day.

Frequently the amount of milk a person drinks daily differs from what he should drink. In a study, the New Jersey State Nutrition Council asked nine thousand teen-agers about the amount of milk they drank the previous day. Results indicate that two out of ten teen-age girls and one out of ten teen-age boys drank no milk on the previous day. Only two out of ten girls and four out of ten boys had had the recommended amount of milk.

To help your family get its quota of milk, think of ways to use milk in different forms. You can serve whole milk, buttermilk, chocolate milk, skim milk, and cocoa prepared with milk as a beverage. And you can use whole milk, buttermilk, and skim milk in cooking and baking. You can make salads and main dishes with cheese and serve ice cream for dessert and between meal snacks. Count these amounts of dairy foods as one cup of milk:

PARSLEY FRESH CARROTS

(Six Servings)

- 12 medium carrots
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/3 cup chopped fresh parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper

Wash, pare and slice carrots. Put in a saucepan with one-half inch boiling water and the salt. Cover and cook until just tender, about 10 minutes. Melt butter or margarine in a small pan. Add parsley and black pepper. Heat and pour over carrots. Toss carefully to be sure carrots are coated with butter sauce.

CLEAN FREEZER

Defrosting and cleaning the home freezer when the food supply is low is one mark of an efficient homemaker. Follow the care

ONE MAN DEAD, SEVERAL HURT IN LEXINGTON

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LEXINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Tension gripped this North Carolina textile center Friday in the wake of a race riot that left one white man dead and a newspaper photographer wounded by gunfire.

All available police were called to duty, including about 20 state troopers. Municipal officials said they will ask for National Guardsmen unless the situation eases during the day.

Violence erupted Thursday night on the heels of attempts by Negroes to gain service at segregated cafes, a theater and a bowling alley in the downtown area.

2,000 WHITES GATHER

A mob of about 2,000 white men gathered on one side of a street bordering the Negro section of the city of 18,000.

About 100 Negroes assembled on the other side of the street.

Police said the two groups threw rocks, bottles and sticks at each other. Some of the bottles were filled with gasoline.

A Negro girl was struck in the head by a rock. Police cars were pelted with rocks and bottles. Windows were broken in a nearby Negro church.

Then a barrage of shots came from the direction of a Negro apartment building.

PHOTOGRAPHER SHOT

Art Richardson 25, a photographer for the High Point Enterprise, was struck in the back. He collapsed into the arms of a deputy sheriff.

Another shot struck Fred Link, 24, of Lexington Link died en route to a Winston-Salem hospital. The bullet struck him in the head.

Richardson, father of four children, was in "stable and satisfactory" condition.

The crowd began dispersing after the shootings, but police brought on fire hoses and scattered those remaining.

Several Negroes were treated for cuts from flying glass. A white man, James Comer, 23, was charged with striking a Negro girl in the face. There were no other arrests.

Davidson County Sheriff Homer Lee Cox asked the state Highway Patrol for aid. Twenty troopers were dispatched from Greensboro, 30 miles away.

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN—Two delegates to the international convention in Miami Beach of the Lions were appointed at a dinner meeting of the club Thursday evening in Dutterer's Restaurant: Howard O. Myers and E. A. Rebert.

The program was in charge of the Boy Scout committee, Kenneth H. Rineaman, chairman. Paul E. Renner, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 84, showed colored slides of the troop three-day canoe trip from Wrightsville to Havre de Grace on the Susquehanna River.

Officers will be installed June 20 at 7 p.m. W. R. Jones, past president of the Reedsville Club and a member of the local club, will be the installing officer. The program will be in charge of the citizenship and patriotism committee, Harvin F. Breighner, chairman.

Sixteen members of the Littlestown Arts and Crafts Club and their guests toured the White House and Mt. Vernon Wednesday. The club will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the social room of the Eagles Home, W. King St. "China Painting" will be the program topic.

President Ivan E. Arentz presided at a meeting of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club Inc. Thursday evening at "Sunset Hill Farm," near town. Reports on the horse show were given. Refreshments were served by George Basehoar. The club will meet July 11. Nevin Dull will serve refreshments.

ESTHER FAIGAN PULLS COUP IN NEWEST BOOK

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Esther Faigan has been a book publisher in New Zealand 16 years. So when she opened an Auckland newspaper last fall she knew from long experience what she had to do.

Here was the story of 12 men who had survived 101 days after shipwreck without food or water on the Minerva Reef, kept alive as much as anything by the heroic Capt. David Fifita and his daily prayer meetings for the castaways.

MEMORABLE COUP

As Mrs. Faigan related it here on her way to the American Booksellers Association convention in Washington next week, she flew immediately to Fiji. That's where the survivors were hospitalized.

There British-born Mrs. Faigan pulled one of the year's memorable coups.

The resulting book, "Minerva Reef," by writer Olaf Ruben, will appear in New Zealand in late summer bearing the imprint of Mrs. Faigan's publishing house. It will be published here next year.

STARTED AS HOBBY

"It's a fantastic story," she says. "They had one match with which they lit a fire to distill sea water for drinking, and their lives depended on keeping the fire burning for the next three months."

"They managed to catch a few fish, their only food. Five died. But I honestly believe the other 12 lived because the captain, a man of great faith, got them together every day for prayers."

Mrs. Faigan started her publishing house as a hobby 16 years ago and in time her husband joined her in it.

Now that she's a widow, she's thinking of spending part of her time in this country. "This is my first trip to the United States, and it's so wonderful I wonder why I waited so long."

Egypt Will Move Ancient Temples

CAIRO (AP)—A commission of experts was reliably reported Friday to have decided that Egypt's ancient temples at Ebu Simbel should be cut piecemeal from the banks of the Nile and reassembled on high grounds.

The plan to save the temples from the flood waters of the Aswan high dam would cost $36 million as opposed to $58 million for a French plan that would

Carlisle Woman Is Hurlled To Death

LANDISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A Carlisle woman was hurled to her death and a man was injured on Thursday night when the motorcycle they were riding crashed into a guard rail on Route 233, a mile north of this Perry County Community.

Coroner Lee C. Morrissey, Perry County, identified the dead woman as Drucilla M. Yana, 29. The driver was identified as Frank E. Myers, Newville. He was reported in satisfactory condition at Carlisle Hospital.

SAYS YANKS' HOPES BRIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—"We can win the pennant without Mickey Mantle."

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk fired this challenge at the rest of the American League today after he had learned that the broken bone in the left foot suffered by Mantle Wednesday night in Baltimore will keep the Yankees' $100,000 centerfielder out of action for at least five weeks.

"I can't see why we shouldn't be able to beat those clubs without him," Houk said. "We all know what he means to the club but I don't think the players will lose spirit. As a matter of fact, this might raise the club up. We have been through this before and know we have to battle harder."

Houk made his remarks over the telephone from Baltimore. He reiterated his opinion Thursday night in the Maryland city after the Yankees lost 4-2 to the Orioles for their fourth defeat in five games and fell out of first place.

PARIS (AP)—Thousands of Parisians massed on the square in front of Notre Dame Cathedral Friday night at an outdoor twilight requiem Mass for Pope John XXIII. The altar was on an elevated stand at the main entrance to the cathedral.

have cut entire temples from the hillside and floated them to safety.

The five-man commission, it was reported, accepted the Egyptian-backed plan primarily for financial reasons.

Deserted Boy Is Driven From Hiding By Hunger

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 13-year-old boy, who took to the woods when his foster parents deserted him three weeks ago, was seized Thursday during a house-breaking rampage caused by hunger. The boy, his clothes tattered and mud-splashed, was found in a field by Conrad Grove from whose nearby Coventryville home he had just taken a shotgun and a rifle. He was turned over to state police and juvenile officers who declined to release his name. They said he appeared in good condition despite the ordeal.

"In 23 years in state police work I have never seen such a sad sight as that little boy. He was dirty as a coal bin and he was starving," said Sgt. Bolek Tarlechy.

Tarlechy said hunger drove the youngster from the woods where he had been living alone ever since. The area he roamed is in Northern Chester County, a sparsely settled farming area just across the Schuylkill River from this eastern Pennsylvania borough.

"He said he wanted food, money to buy food, and guns to hunt game," Tarlechy said.

The Grove home was the third he broke into Thursday. Mrs. Grove was upstairs and came down just after he fled to find the two guns gone. Her husband came home a short while later and when she told him the guns had been stolen he set out to search the neighborhood.

Tarlechy said Grove found the lad in a field carrying one gun. He immediately showed Grove where he had hidden the other and agreed to accompany him home.

From the other homes, the boy stole $70 in cash and some cigarettes and candy. In one he set fire to a cupboard, but the blaze did little damage.

"Black Muslims" Start Prison Riot

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The Tuesday morning riot at the state correctional institution at Chase, Pa., 10 miles west of here, was started by Negroes who professed to be hard core "Black Muslims," Superintendent Frank C. Johnston said Friday.

As a result of the disturbance, Johnston placed ten inmates—nine Negroes and one white—under maximum security.

The short-lived rebellion started in the dining room and involved the throwing of trays and other utensils. The captain of the guards and five other guards were injured before it was brought under control.

Johnston said this was the first indication of any Muslim followers at the institution. He emphasized that although 36 per cent of the inmates are Negro, the majority are not in sympathy with a disturbance of this kind.

LIBEL IN BONN
German Officers Get $15 Each In Suit
Reminiscent Of Cooper Comedy Years Ago

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS
in East Germany are having a good time stirring the unsavory cesspool of war guilt. It is their technique for stepping up dissension in the policies and politics of West Germany.

They have been most active as the long regime of Dr. Adenauer goes into its twilight.

The West German victims of these scurrilous attacks can do nothing about them. Though the libels flow freely across the common language border, no one in West Germany can sue in an East German court to reveal the fictions and lies in the personal slanders.

Most West German newspapers remind the East Germans that they too are a part of the Hitlerian guilt. To this the Easterners retort that they have been purified by communism. They call upon the Westerners to do likewise. That most East Germans would prefer purification by the West's democracy is ignored by their Red bosses.

But a few, extreme, left-wing, West German newspapers have been getting into the act. They have been repeating the personal slanders. Favorite targets have been high level officials in the Bonn Defense Ministry and top-ranking, commanding officers of West German Forces now integrated with NATO.

THIS state of German affairs journalistic resulted in a libel suit almost as comical as the futile suits brought by the famous American author, James Fenimore Cooper. In a wholly unnecessary, link smeared rumpus with distant reviewers and nearby newspapers, he went to the courts to rehabilitate a sagging popularity and at the same time soothe his own outraged sense of self-respect.

Cooper won three or four hundred dollars. The hostile editor then congratulated the court, in print, on its ability to establish exactly how little Cooper's character was worth. This brought a new suit and a smaller award, which the editor happily paid. Circulation was booming as a result of the hassle.

Theodore Roosevelt won a three-cent judgment against the editor of a small daily, who authored a widely read, press-wire libel. But that was about all Teddy asked for, on the excuse that the author had little influence any way. T. R. just wanted to write the facts into a court record for future historians.

Incidentally, the easiest libel suit ever won was by movie star, Liz Taylor. A London daily alleged she was "too fat." How fat is "too fat" to a middle-aged jurymen, fighting his own battle of the bulge, who has already rationalized that younger, better looking people, are too thin for their own good health?

THE WEST GERMAN Defense Ministry ignored these obvious foibles in human nature and libel suits. It initiated court action against an extreme, left wing Bonn journal and its quoted sources, one Lorenz Knorr. He is an opportunistic, pinko West German who constantly shouts "Peace! Peace! but always on Communist terms."

The suit was official but was necessarily in the names of the slandered persons: Generals Hans Speidel, commanding NATO land forces in Central Europe; Adolph Hausinger, representing NATO in Washington; Friedrich Foertsch, commanding in Germany; Joseph Kamhuber and Vice Admiral Ruge. The last two were recently retired for age.

The West German court found guilty with the small award that usually goes to a public official for whom the vindication was the primary objective. The award: $75, or $15 each.

The creators of the libel are now shouting the same thought with which Cooper's enemy editor relished him. If that was all these characters were worth, the original charges must be substantially true!

ACTUALLY, if World War II guilt is to be attached to every German who held office under Hitler or who once wore the Nazi insignia on a uniform, there are no German men over 40, East or West, who are not tarred with the same slanderous brush as were those above.

That theory gets us back to the repudiated, absurd and impossible concept of "unconditional surrender" voiced by F. D. R. at Casa Blanca, which all now consider to have been a folly.

The records of all the five Germans vindicated in the libel suit are not available here. You may rest assured, however, that the Western Allied governments have checked them to their own complete satisfaction.

I do know Hans Speidel's record. There is no German leader, including Adenauer himself, who invited graver dangers of disaster and death to self and loved ones than did Hans Speidel in thwarting Hitler.

As chief-of-staff to Field Marshal Rommel, commanding the German armies on the French invasion coasts, he was up to his eyes in the conspiracy to overthrow Hitler and end the war. In the retreat from France, Speidel countermanded Hitler's orders to destroy Paris. It is only by accident Speidel is still alive. He still carries the marks of imprisonment by Hitler's Gestapo.

The influence of a West German, pinko sheet or politician that tries to libel a record like Speidel's cannot be worth more than the $15 that would be his share of the court's judgment.

MOSCOW (AP)—The United States plans direct arms aid in the Congo to get a military foothold in the heart of Africa, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia says.

The newspaper's attack Friday came in comments on the recent U.S. visit of Gen. Joseph Mobutu, the Congolese army commander in chief.

Mobutu is visiting countries which have shown interest in helping the Congo reequip its armed forces, but no aid agreements have been reported.

GIVE FAREWELL FOR DICK NIXON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was almost a picnic compared to Richard M. Nixon's last public farewell appearance in Los Angeles.

The menu was cold cuts and potato salad. About 1,300 civic leaders had chipped in to buy the guest of honor a color television stereo set. An emcee got in some gentle jibes.

And the former vice president, now 50, told the crowd: "My heart will always be in California."

The occasion was a $6-a-plate farewell luncheon Friday for Nixon and his wife, Pat, who have moved to New York.

The tone of the affair was in marked contrast to Nixon's bitter farewell press conference last November when he lost his bid for election as governor of California.

A sentimental Nixon addressed the luncheon crowd: "One must wait for the evening to see what a splendid day it has been," he said paraphrasing Sophocles.

"I am only 50 and there is much ahead before the evening, but one need not wait for it to know what a splendid day it has been for us."

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Siamese twin girls have been born to a mother who earlier gave birth to a normal set of twins.

The babies are joined at the chest and abdomen.

The babies were delivered by Dr. A. M. Fetschko who declined to comment on the possibility of separating the infants. It was the second Siamese delivery for Dr. Fetschko. The first set was still-born.

Hospital Administrator John B. Richardson declined to identify the mother. He said the couple has three other children, including two-year-old twin boys and a four-year-old girl.

Various tests are planned to determine whether the babies share any organs or functions, Richardson said. He added that the condition under which the babies are joined will not be known for several days.

MORE MARRIAGES

The marriage records of the Rev. John R. Warner, while pastor of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Churches, are concluded at this time.

21. "Married, December 28, 1865, Rush M. Bigham, of Cumberland Township, this County, to Miss Emma Hunter, of Liberty Township, this County."

22. "Married, February 13, 1866, Jacob Neely to Miss Lill Day, both of York Springs District, this County."

23. "Married, March 29, 1866, David Y. Little to Miss Hannah M. Halderman, both of Highland Township, this County."

26. "Married, December 20, 1866, John N. Graft Jr., of Hunterstown, this County, to Miss Nanny V. McIlhenny, near the same place."

Star and Sentinel, Wednesday, November 27, 1867—"Installation — The Rev. John R. Warner, lately of this place (Gettysburg, Pennsylvania), has been recently installed as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Kirkwood, Missouri."

The Rev. John R. Warner died February 20, 1894 and his body was brought to Gettysburg and interred by the side of his wife, Jennie Craig, who had died some 31 years before. The inscription from the marker at his grave reads as follows:

3. "In memory of—John R. Warner, D.D.—Born September 30, 1827—Died February 20, 1894."

The Rev. Warner was succeeded at Lower Marsh Creek and Great Conewago Presbyterian Churches by the Rev. W. S. Van Cleave.

Star and Sentinel, Friday, February 5, 1869—"Ministerial — We learn that the Rev. S. Van Cleave has accepted the call from the Hunters-town and Marsh Creek Presbyterian Churches, in this County, and expects to commence his duties about the first of April, 1869."

Star and Sentinel, Friday, April 30, 1869—"Installation — The Rev. William S. VanCleave was installed on Tuesday last as Pastor of the Presbyterian Churches of Hunters-town (Great Conewago) and Lower Marsh Creek, Mr. Van Cleave has taken up his residence in Gettysburg."

The Rev. W. S. Van Cleave served the two churches mentioned above for a number of years and in 1890 was in charge when Lower Marsh Creek celebrated its centennial. Prior to that time he wrote excellent historical sketches of these congregations. Both were published in the "Star and Sentinel." He apparently had no little ability as a researcher.

During his pastorate in Adams County the Rev. W. S. Van Cleave united the following "in the holy bonds"—

1. "Married, June 15, 1869, Henry Sanders, of New Oxford, this County, to Phebe J. Monfort, the daughter of —? Monfort, of this County."

2. "Married, January 1, 1870, at Gettysburg, Gilbert Worton to Gilbert Worton to Elizabeth Worton—all of this County."

3. "Married, January 1, 1870, Sampson Worton Miss Mary Seffinger, all of this place (Gettysburg, Pennsylvania)."

3. "Married, January 11, 1870, at the home of the bride's parents, R. Calvin Cobean, of this place (Gettysburg), to Miss Jennie R. Cunningham, of Freedom Township, this County."

5. "Married, February 22, 1870, at the home of the bride's father, A. F. White to Miss Mary Marshall, the daughter of James H. Marshall."

6. "Married, March 10, 1870, David G. Donohue to Miss Annie Taughnbaugh, the daughter of Mr. Jeremiah Taughnbaugh, of Strabane Township, this County."

7. "Married, Tuesday, March 28, 1871, at the residence of the bride's father, Major Samuel W. Culbertson to Miss Mary Belle McGinley, the daughter of the Hon. John McGinley, all of Hamilton Township, this County."

8. "Married, October 5, 1871, at the residence of the bride's father, James S. Gordon, of Delavan, Illinois, to Miss Jennie M. McGaughy, of this County. Assisted by the Rev. J. S. Gordon."

9. "Married, November 30, 1871, at the house of the bride's father, Joseph Hamilton to Miss Mattie E. McCullough, all of this County."

10. "Married, February 15, 1872, in the Union Church, Fairfield, this County, William M. Craighead, of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, to Miss Emma McGinley, the daughter of the Hon. John McGinley, of Hamilton Township, this County."

11. "Married, May 15, 1872, Abraham Hoke, of Granite Station, this County, to Miss Josephine King, of Hunterstown, this County."

Before continuing the marriage records of the Rev. Van Cleave, some data on the principles in a marriage performed by the Rev. John R. Warner is given—at this point—

No. 21—Rush M. Bigham to Miss Emma Hunter—on December 26, 1865.

Star and Sentinel, Tuesday, May 13, 1870—"Died, May 6, 1870, in Freedom Township, this County, Mrs. Emma J. M. Bigham, the wife of Rush M. Bigham, in the 25th year of her age."

In the Bigham family burial plot, in the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Cemetery—

1. "In memory of—Emma J. S. wife of—Rush M. Bigham—Died May 6th, 1870—Aged 25 years."

2. "In memory of—Rush M. Bigham—Born December 23, 1842—Died June 26, 1874."

These notes will be continued next week.

CANCER FATAL TO ZASU PITTS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Zasu Pitts, famous for her comic look of dismay and her fluttery hands, is dead of cancer at 63. The veteran actress was the wife of John E. Woodall, Los Angeles businessman and former tennis star. She entered Good Samaritan Hospital Thursday and died Friday.

Although she became famous as a comedienne, Miss Pitts began her motion picture and stage career in serious roles. Her first part was with Mary Pickford in "The Little Princess," which she got by simply going to a studio casting window and asking for it.

HAS 2 CHILDREN

Among her better known films were "Sunny Side Up," "The Guardsman," "Ruggles of Red Gap" and "Life with Father." She made her Broadway debut in 1944 in "Ramsack Inn," and her greatest stage successes were "The Late Christopher Bean" and "Solid Gold Cadillac."

Her last work was in the television series "Oh, Susanna!" She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Ann Reynolds, and an adopted son, Donald Gallery.

Her unique first name was given her by her father who used the last letters and the first letters of the names of two aunts, Eliza and Susan. Miss Pitts pronounced it "zay-zoo."

Funeral services have not been announced.

NAB DOCTOR IN SCANDAL

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Stephen Ward, whose disclosure of relations between a red-haired party girl and War Minister John Profumo shook the Conservative government, was arrested today.

Ward, 43, an osteopath, was taken into custody at suburban North Watford and taken to the Marylebone Lane police station.

A Scotland Yard spokesman declined to say what Ward was accused of, but told newsmen: "It is likely that he will be formally charged later today."

Ward had said publicly that Profumo and Christine Keeler, a 22-year-old beauty, met in 1961 at a cottage he rents on the Maidenhead estate of Viscount Astor, son of Virginia-born Lady Astor.

Ward denied in a television interview this week that his activities might be construed as procuring.

TORONTO (AP)—"Today's success story is that of communism," a Presbyterian missionary to India says.

Communism has done more in 60 years than Christianity has been able to accomplish in 2,000, the Rev. Russell T. Self told 235 startled delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada Friday night.

The Rev. Mr. Self said Christianity now claims a smaller portion of the world's population than at any time since its earliest days while communism, which had a handful of adherents in 1903, now controls the minds of a third of the world's population. He said the church must spend more money to counter Communist propaganda.

Buddhist Monks Appear Greater Threat To Diem Than Red Jungle Troops

EDITOR'S NOTE — Religious conflict is complicating the problems of South Viet Nam. Some consider the Buddhist uprising there a more serious challenge to the pro-Western government of President Ngo Dinh Diem than the jungle warfare waged by Communist guerrillas. Here a skilled observer of Southeast Asia gives his appraisal of the new danger.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Yellow-robed Buddhist monks, pledged to nonviolence, present one of the most serious threats which President Ngo Dinh Diem's pro-Western government has faced in its eight stormy years.

Diem's officials are worried that the unarmed demonstrators may be more than a match for their large, American advised army, battle-tested though it is in jungle fighting against Communist guerrillas.

Until now, the Viet Cong Communist guerrillas—led and armed from neighboring North Viet Nam—have been the only force Diem has been unable to overcome.

BUDDHIST REVOLT

But the religious revolt is ominous in a country where 80 per cent of the population is Buddhist, ruled by an authoritarian Roman Catholic president.

A movement which one month ago was a scattering of Buddhist demonstrators has become a powerful political force.

It began May 8, observed internationally as Buddha's birthday. The government had forbidden the public display of any flags other than the national flag, and Buddhist leaders in the central Vietnamese city of Hue objected. A demonstration followed,

JFK AND "MAC" TO MEET AGAIN

IN THE WEST WITH KENNEDY (AP)—President Kennedy will meet with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for informal talks during Kennedy's late-June trip to Europe, the White House announced today.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said Kennedy and Macmillan would get together late on June 29, following the President's visit to Ireland. Kennedy then will continue on to Italy June 30.

Before Kennedy left the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk to witness military displays ashore, Salinger read a statement which began:

"As it is now six months since they last met and there are a number of problems they can usefully discuss, President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan have felt it would be useful to take advantage of the President's trip to Europe to have informal talks together."

Kennedy and Macmillan will confer in Sussex.

The two leaders last met in the Bahamas in mid-December. At that time, they developed a joint plan, now the subject of much inter-allied controversy, to equip the North Atlantic Treaty Organization with a multinational nuclear force that would include Polaris missile-firing ships.

and eight persons were killed when government armored cars moved in.

Hue is in a region controlled politically and economically by President Diem's brothers, Ngo Dinh Canh and Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc.

"HOLY WAR"

Because the president, his family and many of his top lieutenants are Roman Catholic, the Buddhist movement has taken on some of the trappings of a holy war.

But President Diem has said his government has strictly prohibited religious discrimination.

Leading Catholic priests say the matter is political and not religious. Even the Buddhist leaders insist they have no quarrel with the Catholic Church.

The chief priests of the Buddhist movement are fully aware of the political aspects of their movement.

In one month, they have welded their movement into something almost resembling a political party. Committees have been formed for negotiation, propaganda, planning and communicating in Viet Nam and abroad.

ASK FREEDOM TO PREACH

The leading monks say they will be satisfied if the government grants permission to fly the Buddhist flag, equal legal standing with the Catholic Church, an end to "arresting and terrorizing of the faithful" freedom for monks to preach, and indemnities for the persons killed or wounded in the May 8 incident.

But the real aims of the movement seem to go far beyond these.

"We have been in a fight for freedom of religion and social justice in South Viet Nam," one monk said.

"WE WILL FIGHT"

"We will fight until we win—not violently of course," American diplomats feel a government collapse brought about by the Buddhist movement could by the country into chaos. The Viet Cong almost certainly would move swiftly into the power vacuum.

At the same time, American officials are under strict orders not to get involved. U.S. military officers have declined to let the Vietnamese army move troops to Hue in U.S. Air Force transport planes.

Bright Future For Railroads Is Seen

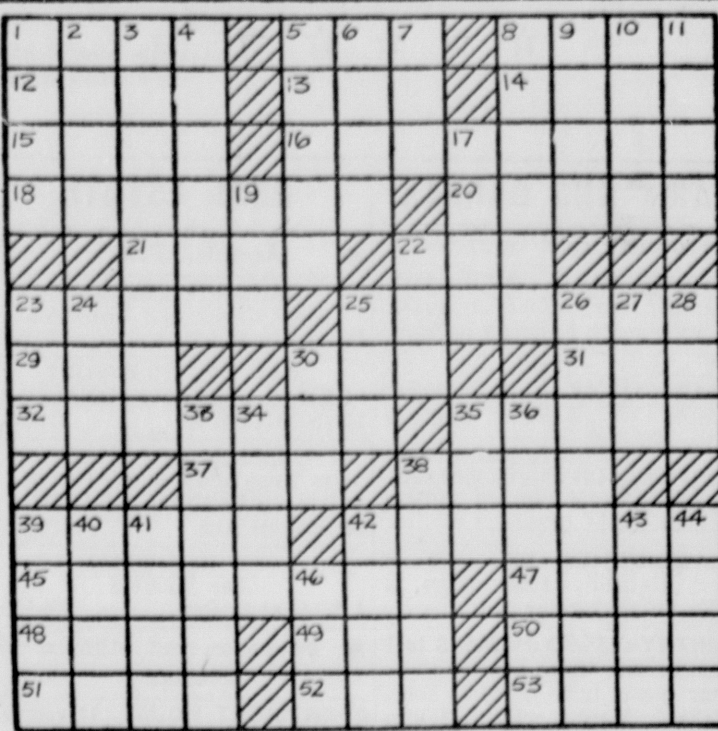

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A railroad official says the industry has a bright economic future.

Alfred E. Perlman, board chairman of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad and president of the New York Central System, said Thursday night:

"No industry possesses greater opportunities and potentialities than do the railroads for capitalizing on the developments that lie ahead."

In an address before a meeting of the Newcomen Society, Perlman named three objectives necessary for the survival of railroads as private institutions—consolidation, relaxation of rate regulations and modernization of employee work rules.

Blind Boy Feels Strength In President's Handshake

By DIAL TORGERSO

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A blind boy stood by the helicopter, waiting for President Kennedy.

"I'm Fred Korth," said a tall man with a gentle voice. "I'm the secretary of the Navy."

"How do you do, Mr. Korth," said Joey Renzi, age 11. "Is he coming is the President coming?"

"No, not yet," said Korth. "Don't worry. We won't let him get away without seeing you. He wants to meet you."

WROTE BRAILLE LETTER

It was a letter in Braille that Joey wrote to Kennedy which attracted the President's attention. In it, Joey told how he wanted to shake the President's hand because "it wouldn't do me any good to stand on the roadside while all the other kids are watching."

That's how it was that a blind boy was waiting at the Marine Corps recruit depot with the high-ranking officials alongside the helicopter which was to take Kennedy away to an aircraft carrier at sea.

The boy—born prematurely—has been blind virtually all his life. Doctors say an over-rich oxygen mixture in an incubator caused hemorrhages which destroyed his sight.

SEES WITH HANDS

But he can see a great deal with his hands as he did Thursday, when, in his mind's own bright pictures, he saw the President.

All Joey heard was a big car stop, he felt a large hand reach for his and another touched his shoulder.

He told afterwards what was said:

"He said he enjoyed seeing me, and I told him what an honor it was to meet him, and he gave me a tie clasp, and I gave him my letter. And he said, 'I hope you can come to the White House and visit me sometime.'"

The tie clasp was a gold miniature PT boat with the word "Kennedy" on it.

The boy's letter told the President, "I will treasure this experience all my life."

What could Joey's hands tell him about the President?

STRONG GRIP

"He's kind of tall," said Joey. "He's real neat looking. He has kind of like an English—no, I guess it's a New England—accent. And he has a strong grip. A real strong grip for a big, important man like the President."

After their brief talk, the President climbed into the waiting helicopter, the engine roared and dust flew.

"Goodbye, Mr. Kennedy," Joey shouted into the windblast. "Goodbye, sir!"

"Can he see me?" he asked. "Did he wave back?"

"Yes," Joey was told, "he waved."

Joey listened the helicopter out of sight.

"This has been the best day in my life—ever," he said.

KUTZTOWN'S FOLK FESTIVAL OPENS JUNE 29

The village of Kutztown again will host the 14th annual Pennsylvania Dutch Folk Festival this year from June 29 through July 6.

Last year's edition of the largest folk festival in the nation attracted more than 175,000 visitors to the small college town on Route 222 between Reading and Allentown.

Many new features have been added to this year's event, to be held on the vast fairgrounds in the heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch country.

NEW FEATURES

Among them are a "Seven Sweets and Seven Sours," which will include a pie house, cookie house, pretzel house, a funnel and waffle hex shop, and a smoked meats shop.

Also new will be demonstrations of pine tar burning, cornhusk mat making, birch oil distilling and mush boiling.

And, as in the past, old-time craftsmen will produce baskets, brooms, barrels and fish nets; farmers will turn out cider on an 18th century cider press; straw mobiles will be made, and "schpotza," a maple sugar delicacy, will be prepared.

Stage presentations will be presented daily, with pageants of Gay Dutch folklike, a panorama of horse-and-buggy days in the Dutch country, and jiggling and hoe-dancing demonstrations. Through out the gay event, Dutch farm women will serve the distinctive meals which have made Pennsylvania Dutch cookery nationally famous.
